

PERSONAL CONSULTANT CERTIFICATION PROCESS

Introduction

As an Academy-certified Personal Consultant, you will be in a position of public trust. You will be assisting clients shift the information systems running with their consciousness and the relationship they have with their “full potential self”. Your knowledge and experience become transformational tools that lead to positive change in individuals, relationships and in the collective consciousness. As a Certified Personal Consultant, you may charge for the professional services you perform, and you may also receive referrals from the Academy if desired. You will also become eligible to become a sponsor to future Consultant applicants, if you choose. At your request, members of the Academy are available to assist in supporting you as you progress into deeper levels of expertise and potentialization.

General Requirements

In order to receive a Personal Consultant Certificate from the International Academy of Holodynamics, the following requirements must be met:

1. Advocate a Holodynamic view of reality to others, which means demonstrating a multi-dimensional perspective, embracing new information that relates to consciousness from various branches of science such as quantum physics, holographics, and self-organizing information systems, etc.
2. Be able to access enfolded dimensions in hyperspace to allow direct communication with one's Full Potential Self.
3. Develop the ability to access the holographic dimensions of consciousness where self-organizing information systems called holodynes control one's thoughts, feelings and actions both individually and collectively.
4. Communicate with holodynes, understand the implicate order of their growth, and as needed, be able to apply information in a way that assists in their transformation to a more evolved form of consciousness. This process is called Tracking.
5. Be skilled at coaching others to track, transform, and potentialize their holodynes.
6. Advocate the extension of this process into the larger community through potentialization, following the progression of the six stages of development.
7. Demonstrate mastery of the academic information and demonstrate the skills necessary to perform professionally as a Personal Consultant.

The forms outlined below are designed to document certification trackings, and verification of these trackings. These records are a necessary part of the record maintained by the Academy and are used to qualify you for performing tracking sessions on a professional basis.

1. Submit the Personal Consultant Certification Application Form with the application fee $1500.
2. Apply for a Sponsor who is already certified as a Personal Consultant. The sponsor will supervise your progress through the certification process and will answer your questions, support you where needed, observe your abilities to Track and will review all of your documentation in the applicant process. They will be responsible for recommending your competence to the Academy for certification.
3. The Tracking Log Sheet is to be completed by you for documenting tracking sessions you have performed on yourself and on others.
4. The Verification of Tracking form is to be completed by three people you have tracked immediately following the tracking session.

All forms are to be submitted to your Sponsor, whose responsibility it is to mentor you through the experiential process by answering questions, making suggestions or recommendations, and generally monitoring your progress as it relates to building tracking skills. When you are ready, the Sponsor will observe or witness one or more of your tracking sessions (as needed), and verify your level of proficiency as a Personal Consultant.

Upon completion, the Sponsor's observations, along with the required forms will be submitted to the Academy as a part of your certification requirements.

Often, it is desirable for the tracker and/or the individual being tracked to keep detailed notes or recordings of tracking sessions. This is an arrangement that is between the tracker and individual tracked for future mutual reference.

It is necessary that both the Sponsor and the Personal Consultant applicant maintain the detailed records outlined in these requirements in the unlikely event that a challenge to their competency would occur from an outside source. In this case, the detailed records would serve to support your qualifications.

You may download the Forms from our website at www.Holodynamics.com as needed. If you have already used previous forms as a part of your records for certification, you may submit the previous forms for review by your Sponsor.
